Hon. F. Pakenham,
[REDACTED]

Dear Mr. Pakenham,

Before his return to Dublin Mr. Little told me that you had kindly agreed to give an address on Partition at a meeting of the British & North American Luncheon Club to be held at the Abercorn Rooms on Wednesday, January 11th., 1939. He suggested that I should see you in connection with the matter at the N.U.I. Graduates Club on last Sunday, but unfortunately I was unable to get to the Club, much as I would have liked to hear your talk.

I have to ask you, therefore, to be good enough to send me a short note confirming your acceptance of the invitation to speak at the Luncheon Club, so that I can write to that effect to Mr. Hector Hughes, the intermediary between ourselves and the business men who will be your audience at the Abercorn Rooms. Perhaps it will be possible to arrange a meeting with you, Mr. Pakenham, before the date mentioned, should you come to London in the interval. There are many problems I would like to discuss with you and I feel sure that your advice and guidance would be very valuable.

Best wishes for Xmas and the New Year.

Yours sincerely

Hon. Secretary of the Anti-Partition of Ireland League
